

A Peponapis* bee packs it out at Pinnacles!

From the children's book...

NATIONAL PARKS A TO Z
BY GUS D'ANGELO

mountaineers.org/books

Pack it in! Pack it out!

*P is for “Pack it in,
pack it out!”*

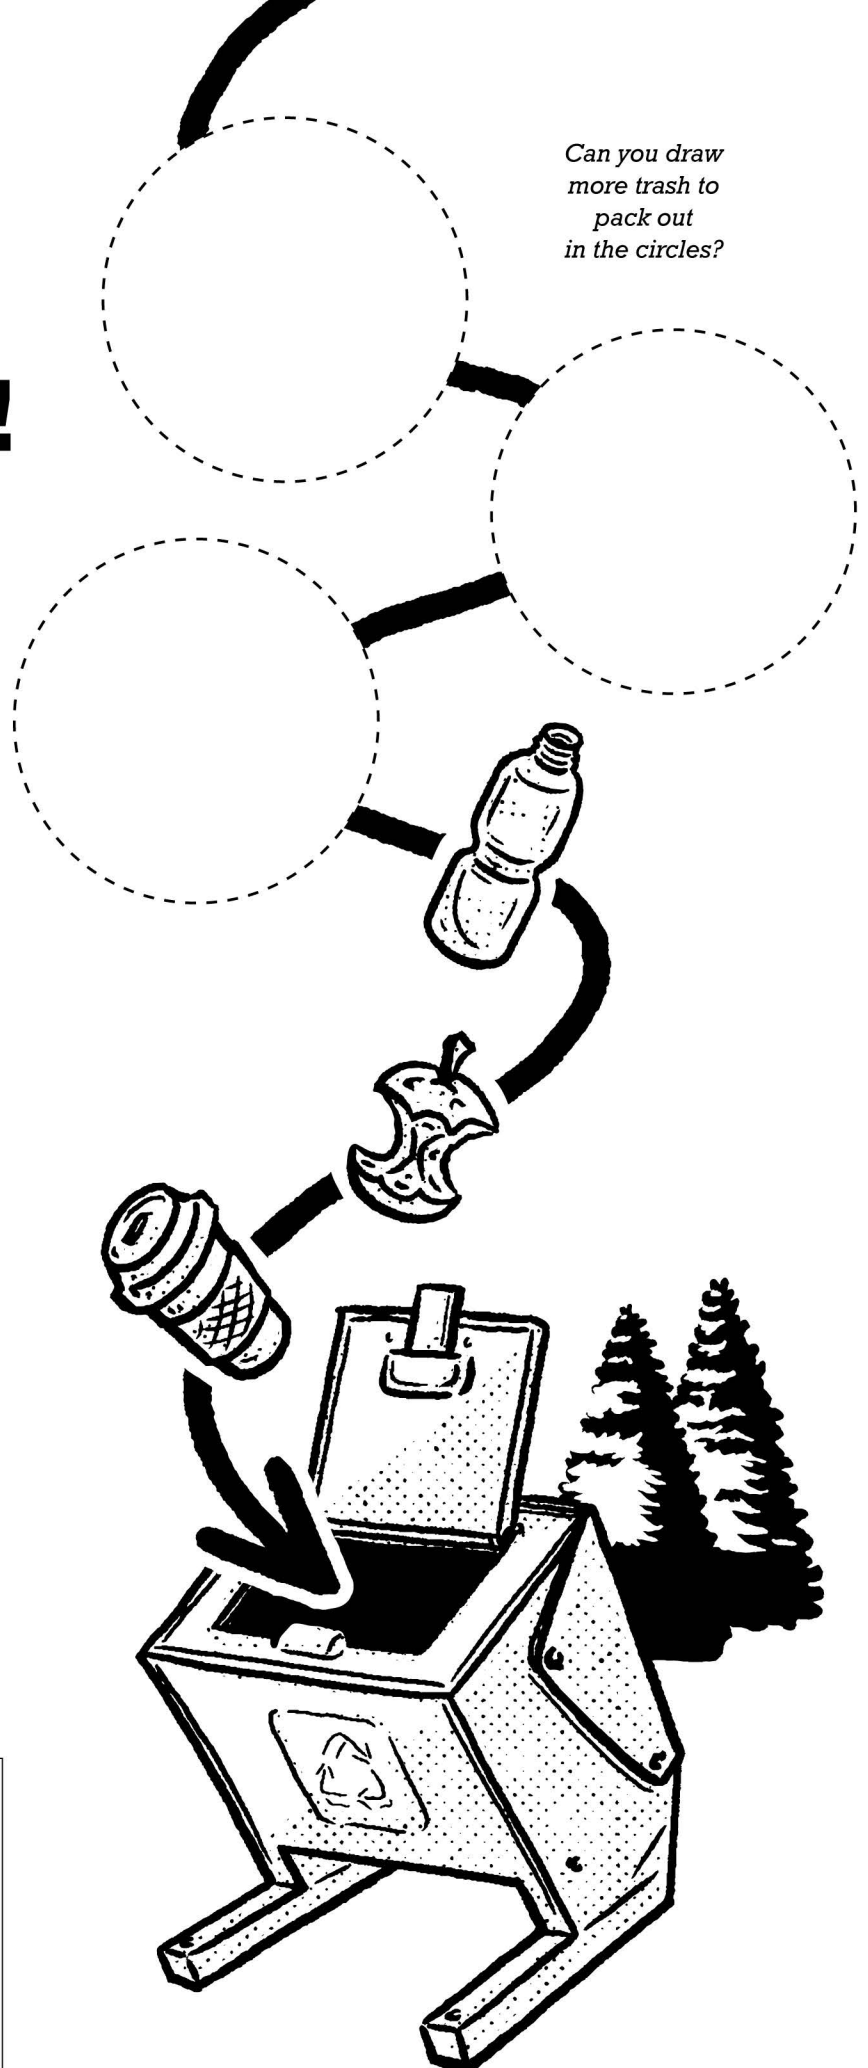

*Keep our parks clean
by carrying out
everything you carry in.*

Don't leave any bottles or bags...

*Or wrappers, tissues,
or orange peels (or even toilet paper or poop—ick!).*

*When hiking
or camping,
can you leave it so
no one can tell you
were there?*

*Can you draw
more trash to pack out in the circles?*

From the children's book...

NATIONAL PARKS A TO Z
BY GUS D'ANGELO

mountaineers.org/books

MadLib: Pack it in! Pack it out!

_____ and I went hiking in the GGNRA. In our _____ backpack we (BOOK CHARACTER 1) (ADJECTIVE)
carried our trail map, a water bottle, and a _____.
(NOUN)

Starting at Ocean Beach, we saw a _____ making a _____ out of sand who (ANIMAL 1) (NOUN)
dropped an empty plastic water bottle on the beach!

_____ and I _____: "Nooo! Pack it in, Pack it out!" "Oh right! I'm (BOOK CHARACTER 1) (SPEAKING VERB)
sorry!" the _____ said, and they picked up the empty water bottle and put it in a nearby trash container.
(ANIMAL 1)

Up at Land's End, we saw a _____ standing on rocks over the surf _____ a (ANIMAL 2) (EATING VERB)
_____ and then toss the peel/core into the water! _____ and I (FRUIT) (BOOK CHARACTER 1)
_____ : "Nooo! Pack it in, Pack it out!" "Oh right! I'm sorry!" the _____ said.
(SPEAKING VERB) (ANIMAL 2)
They fished peel/core out of the surf, and we put it in our backpack to put in the trash later.

We crossed the Golden Gate Bridge, which was covered in _____ fog. Hiking in (ADJECTIVE)
the Marin Headlands we saw a lady walking her _____ who left a _____, (TYPE OF DOG) (ADJECTIVE)
_____ poop on the trail! _____ and I _____: "Nooo! Pack it in,
(CRAZY COLOR) (BOOK CHARACTER 1) (SPEAKING VERB)
Pack it out!" "Oh right! I'm sorry!" the lady said, and she scooped up the dog poop into a biodegradable bag and dropped it into a trash container.

_____ and I then _____ up to the top of Hawk Hill where we sat (BOOK CHARACTER 1) (ACTION VERB)
down on a _____ and watched the _____ sun set over the Pacific Ocean.
(NOUN) (ADJECTIVE)

" _____ " we shouted. "What a _____ day in the GGNRA!"
(HAPPY SOUND) (ADJECTIVE)